January 25

Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle

The details of Paul's conversion are well known. He was thrown from his horse on the road to Damascus (except that Acts makes no mention of a horse). Maybe he just fell while walking. While stunned on the ground Paul heard the voice of Jesus: "Why are you persecuting me?" Jesus and the Church are one. To persecute the Church is to persecute Christ. Jesus is the head and the Church is his body. Paul did not convert to loving Jesus and say that the Church was just an accidental human construct that blocked him from the Lord. No, of course not. He believed what right-minded Catholics have believed for centuries and still believe today. To love Jesus is to love the Church and vice versa. It is impossible to love the Lord while disregarding the historical reality of how the Lord is communicated to us. The Church is not just a vehicle to carry God's revelation. The Church is part of God's revelation.

Paul's conversion teaches us that when Jesus comes to us, he doesn't come alone. He comes with his angels, saints, priests, and bishops. He comes with Mary, the sacraments, doctrine, and devotions. He comes with the Church because he and the Church are one. And when we go to the Lord we don't go alone either. We go as members of a Church that has received a tradition to meet Jesus who gave it to us. Thus St. Paul heard from God himself, and thus we believe today.

After the conversion of St Paul, he began his ministry of preaching the work in around the area of Mediterranean. During this journey of Christianity, he wrote letter which become books of the bible to several areas. He later died in 67 AD in Roman Empire. (catholicreadings.org)

Sunday of the Word of God- January 22

In the Apostolic Letter Aperuit illis, Pope Francis instituted the Sunday of the Word of God, which is celebrated on the 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time.

"Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world"

- Pope Francis, Aperuit illis, 2
