Special Announcements

CWL Meeting:

Thank you to all the CWL members who helped with this year’s garage sale by donating, setting up, kitchen help or all three. It is nice to be able to see each other again. Our strawberry social was a huge success and fun was had by all.

Our next general meeting will take place at

St. Noel Chabanel on Monday September 12 at 1:30PM.

Our fall general meeting will be exciting and most interesting, as we will be opening a time capsule from 25 years ago! We will need volunteers to work in the kitchen that day and bring goodies to the meeting.

Stay safe and healthy and have an awesome blessed summer.

Your president Brenda Weel

St. Maria Goretti Feast July 6

About Saint Maria Goretti

When St. Maria Goretti’s parents held their newborn child for the first time, they hardly could have imagined that eleven short years later she would die a martyr and a saint. Yet, while her fate was unknown to them, her parents did much to help prepare her for that fateful day. From her parents’ knees, St. Maria Goretti was taught piety and devotion. Her mother and father were poor in goods of the earth, but they were rich in faith, a faith which they generously shared with their children. Because of their faith and their love of God, the family was happy, even though the often suffered from want.

Saint Maria Goretti

Hoping to rise from their desperate poverty, St. Maria Goretti’s family moved to the Pontines Marshes. Her parents worked as tenant farmers in the disease-infested swamp and soon, a swamp-born disease would claim the life of her father, Luigi. His wife, Assunta, was then left to provide entirely for the children, while St. Maria had to take on great responsibilities, helping care for the younger children. Her mother considered St. Maria to be a blessing and after the girl’s martyrdom, she could not remember an occasion where St. Maria willfully disobeyed her. She was cheerful and she was also known to be generous, sharing her meager food with her siblings. St. Maria Goretti was also deeply devoted to Our Lady and wore a rosary around her wrist, so she could pray often.

At age 11, St. Maria Goretti made her First Communion with great devotion. Just a month afterwards, she was called to receive the double crown of martyrdom and virginity. On July 5, 1902, the 16-year tenant worker Alessandro pulled a knife on St. Maria, intending to force her commit a sin against the virtue of purity. Instead, St. Maria Goretti cried out “No! No! No! It is a sin—you will go to Hell!” Angrily, Alessandro stabbed her fourteen times and left her for dead. Since everyone was out in the fields, no one heard Maria’s cries for help. She was finally discovered and rushed to the hospital, but little could be done.

Despite her sufferings, she never opened her mouth to complain. After caring for her wounds, Dr. Bartoli told the incoming priest, “Father you have little to do. We are leaving a dying girl but you are finding an angel.” Before she died, she was asked if she forgave her murderer and she replied as only a saint could, “Yes, I too, for the love of Jesus forgive him... and I want him to be with me in Paradise... May God forgive him, because I have already forgiven him.”

Although St. Maria Goretti died praying for her murderer, it would be years later before he repented. After several years in prison, St. Maria Goretti appeared to Alessandro one night in a dream: she was standing in a field of flowers and holding white lilies out to him. Alessandro finally repented and St. Maria Goretti’s dying prayer had been heard. Imitating the heroic forgiveness of her daughter, Assunta also heroically forgave Alessandro; on Christmas Eve in 1937, the mother of St. Maria Goretti and the murderer of St. Maria Goretti attended Christmas together at the saint’s shrine.
