All Souls Day- Nov 2,2024- Did you know that each month has a traditional Catholic devotion? Most churches put names next to the Mass. Look at your bulletin's Mass list. Those people need prayers, and most of the time, parishes pray for people who have passed on. Whereas canonized saints we know are in Heaven, we do all we can for others who have passed, especially those in most need, by praying that they, too, are in Heaven.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us about the state of purification called purgatory. Nothing evil is allowed in Heaven. Jesus' sacrifice is all transforming, not just a "cover-up." What it means by this that we believe that Christ's sacrifice is not just making us appear to be pure, but when we really accept Him wholly, we are transformed. We just need to receive Him.

As imperfect, fallen humans, we might likely not enter into eternal life completely spotless, and that is why His love continues to purify us in the state of purgatory. What's left of sin is taken away. Traditionally, people ask for 40 Masses to be said for a person who has passed. Forty biblically represent a long time, so aimed to help someone even if that person was said to be in Purgatory for a long time.

The afterlife doesn't necessarily have a sense of time, so when someone speaks in manners of time, it's just us finite humans attempting to understand the afterlife. We should prepare ourselves to be rid of all sin as soon as possible through prayer, the sacraments given by God, and constant conversion. That way, we can enjoy the Kingdom of Heaven where we all belong "sooner"—so to speak. Until then, we still strive to understand and visualize purgatory. For example, Dante's famous Divine Comedy is a poem about a character's journey through heaven, hell, and purgatory. Don't just look at your bulletin's list of those in need of prayers or who have passed—actually, pray for them by name. This is a good opportunity to ask saints to pray for those in purgatory as well!
