St. Patrick Cemetery – As we continue to improve and enhance our St. Patrick's Cemetery we are pleased to announce an addition to the cemetery. We have just installed a plaque on a ole that is located near the Columbarium.

The wording on the plaque is such, that anyone who has love one either buried in a plot or interred in a niche in one of the Columbarium's will know what it means to be in a Catholic cemetery.

The next time you visit the cemetery please take the time to read, reflect and take comfort in knowing what it means to have a love one laid to rest there.

If anyone wishes to make a donation toward the cost of this plaque (contact Peter Goorts or the office) it would be greatly appreciated as we continue to improve and enhance the resting place of loved ones. Kindly refer to the Churches bulletin for Peter's contact information are so grateful for the bountiful blessing in our lives. Cash donations are always welcome.

The feast day of St. John XXIII is celebrated on October 11. He was known also known as "Good Pope John".

Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was born in 1881 near Borgano, Italy. He was the oldest of 13 children. Angelo joined the Secular Franciscan Order. After he was ordained a priest in 1904, he returned to Rome to study canon law. He became the bishop's secretary, Church history teacher in the seminary and publisher of the diocesan paper.

During World War I, he served as a stretcher bearer for the Italian army. During World War II he was a papal diplomat, serving in Bulgaria, Turkey and France. With the help of Germany's ambassador in Turkey, Archbishop Roncalli, he helped save approximately 24,000 Jewish people from death.

In 1953 he was named a cardinal and Bishop. He was elected Pope at the age of 77, taking the name of John. He soon called an ecumenical council and presided over the first session of the Second Vatican Council. The purpose of the Council was to bring the church into the modern world. It also was an effort to end hostilities between religions. Eastern Orthodox, Anglican and Protestant religious leaders were invited to attend.

He died on June 3, 1963. He was beatified November 15, 1881 by Pope John Paul II. He was canonized on the same day as Pope John Paul II by Pope Benedict on April 27, 2014.
