February 2nd is celebrated as the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, commemorating Mary and Joseph's presentation of Jesus at the Temple, fulfilling Jewish law.

Significance of the Feast

The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas, is observed on February 2nd, exactly 40 days after Christmas. This feast commemorates the event described in the Gospel of Luke (Luke 2:22-40), where Mary and Joseph bring the infant Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem to present Him to God, in accordance with Jewish law. This law required that every firstborn male child be dedicated to the Lord and that a sacrifice be made.
