Saint Maximilian Kolbe- Feast Day August 14

Franciscan Priest, Martyr of Charity

Maximilian Kolbe was born Raymond Kolbe on January 8, 1894, in Zdunska Wola, Poland, to a poor but devout Catholic family. From an early age, he showed a deep love for the Blessed Virgin Mary and a desire to serve God. At the age of 12, he had a vision of the Virgin Mary offering him two crowns - one white for purity and one red for martyrdom - and he chose both.

In 1907, Raymond entered the Franciscan Order and took the name Maximilian. He was ordained a priest in 1918 and became known for his deep devotion to the Immaculate Conception and his missionary zeal. He founded the Militia Immaculatae (Army of the Immaculate) and established the monastery of Niepokalanów near Warsaw, which became a center for Catholic publishing and evangelization.

During World War II, Maximilian was arrested by the Nazis and sent to Auschwitz concentration camp. In July 1941, when a prisoner escaped, the Nazis selected ten men to be starved to death as punishment. When one of the selected men, Franciszek Gajowniczek, cried out for his family, Maximilian stepped forward and offered to take his place. He was starved for two weeks and then killed by lethal injection on August 14, 1941. He was canonized by Pope John Paul II on October 10, 1982, and his feast day is celebrated on August 14th
